IV. Other Business Activities

IV.(A). Other Investment-Related Activities

Mr. Dusick is engaged in the following investment-related business activities outside the scope of his investment advisory activities on behalf of CF. For any listed activity, we will name the other entity and we will also describe the relationship, if any, between our advisory business and each particular activity. We will also address any conflicts of interest that may arise in relation to such outside activity(s) as well as any particulars surrounding Mr. Dusick's receipt of any compensation in connection with such activities.

Securities brokerage and insurance activities

Other entity: Insurance Agencies

Relationship/Conflicts/Compensation: Mr. Dusick may offer to sell insurance products as an insurance agent. While Mr. Dusick does 95% of his insurance business through The Pinnacle Group, he can choose anywhere to do his insurance business. CFI and The Pinnacle Group are not affiliated entities.

Although we are obligated to tell you we may receive compensation from Insurance products, both Mr. Dusick's and our objective as a firm is to place nothing before your best interests.

CF may make conflicting or differing recommendations with respect to the insurance products to different advisory clients. All such recommendations are based on each individual client financial circumstances, needs, risk tolerances, objectives, etc.

How we Address the Conflict(s): First and foremost, we address the conflicts described in the preceding section by disclosing them to you in this Brochure Supplement as well as in CF's separate Brochure. As a matter of general policy, we aggressively discourage activities that put your interests anywhere but first. Additionally, we have instituted a comprehensive supervisory process, detailed in our Written Supervisory Procedures ("WSPs") that was designed to address, among other things, conflicts of interest such as this one. In addition, we have designated "Investment-related" means "activities that pertain to securities, commodities, banking, insurance, or real estate (including, but not limited to, acting as or being associated with an investment adviser, broker-dealer, municipal securities dealer, government securities broker or dealer, issuer, investment company, futures sponsor, bank, or savings association)."

Chief Compliance Officer, as set forth on Schedule A of our Form ADV, to be the party responsible for the overall application and oversight of our supervisory process and our WSPs. Our Chief Compliance Officer has the authority to delegate certain supervisory responsibilities to other supervised persons within our firm in order to ensure that our overall system of supervision is being adequately carried out and in a timely manner.

The potential conflicts of interest described in the preceding section are commonplace in the investment industry and we believe that they are not only appropriate but that they are proper in light of the added examination, licensing, registration, and other regulatory oversight that also takes place in the brokerage and insurance portions of the investment industry. Mr. Dusick has satisfied various regulatory examination and registration requirements that allow not only for the offering of brokerage and insurance products as well as the receipt of the normal and customary compensation that any similarly registered, licensed, and qualified person could receive in the form of sales compensation for those same products.

The added compensation received by Mr. Dusick in connection with any brokerage or insurance activities is deemed routine and customary compensation for such activities and is not believed to be inappropriate.

IV.(B). Other Activities

Other than as described above in IV.(A), Mr. Dusick is not engaged in any activities outside the scope of his investment advisory activities on behalf of CF.

The purpose of this Item is to describe any additional compensation (outside that which has been described above in Section IV.(A).) that Mr. Dusick may receive in addition to her normal compensation for the investment advisory services he/she performs under our firm.
